

ROUND TRIP FORT LAUDERDALE

Get into the holiday spirit with a relaxing day at sea as we cross the Caribbean from Fort Lauderdale to Cozumel, Mexico's largest island, for palm-lined beaches and Mayan ruins. Explore more of the Caribbean coast of Central America at Belize City, similarly rich in Mayan heritage and gateway to a UNESCO-listed Barrier Reef. Now Santo Tomás de Castilla in Guatemala attracts the adventurous with rainforest hikes and the discerning with authentic markets selling locally crafted goods. There's snorkeling and swimming with dolphins on Roatán Island in Honduras, before another sea day takes us to George Town in Grand Cayman for dazzling white sands and a good rum punch. The fun times continue in Ocho Rios, Jamaica, a short hop from the famous Dunn's River Falls. There's time to recover during a sea day en route to Nassau, capital of the Bahamas with its pretty pastel-colored architecture, before our trip concludes back in Fort Lauderdale.
