

COPENHAGEN TO PORTSMOUTH (LONDON)

Be enchanted by Northern Europe on this 16-night voyage from Copenhagen to Portsmouth. After departing the design-forward Danish capital, we head to the Swedish town of Lysekil, framed by red-hued cliffs. A day at sea brings us to the Norwegian coastal town of Alesund, famed for its striking Art Nouveau architecture, before venturing to Trondheim, Norway's former Viking capital. We spend more peaceful time at sea and then it's onto Iceland. Discover the fjords and flourishing art scene of Seydisfjordur, and get a dose of culture in Akureyri. Reaching the fishing town of Isafjordur, take time to soak up its pristine landscapes before we weave our way to Reykjavik for two days exploring the Icelandic capital. Our next stop is Stornoway on Scotland's Isle of Lewis, followed by Belfast, the birthplace of the Titanic. Wander the storied streets of Ireland's historic capital Dublin, before we reach Portsmouth in the UK, our final stop.
