

NEW YORK CITY TO QUEBEC CITY

Our 10-night fall sailing leaves the bright lights of New York City in its wake, weaving towards the east coast of Canada. A day at sea brings us to Nova Scotia, where we visit the proud coastal community of Yarmouth and the eclectic city of Halifax. After another day at sea, Charlottetown on Prince Edward Island comes into view, famous as the setting of the book Anne of Green Gables, before it's over to Les Îles-de-la-Madeleine to admire the rugged coastline and red sandstone cliffs. From Gaspé, visit Bonaventure Island, home to the world's largest northern gannet colony, and spot whales from the lovely beaches of Havre-Saint Pierre. We continue to Sept-Îles, renowned for its pristine forests and lakes, and revel in the golden hues of the trees that grace Baie-Comeau, before we complete our journey in Québec City.
