

ROUNDTrip QUEBEC CITY

This 12-night roundtrip voyage from Québec City showcases the best of Canada's east coast. Our first port of call is beautiful Baie-Comeau on the shores of the St. Lawrence River, followed by Havre-Saint Pierre, a nature lover's paradise thanks to its lovely beaches and epic hiking trails. A day at sea brings us to Saint Pierre et Miquelon, a French archipelago that blends breathtaking nature with a rich cultural scene, and then it's over to Sydney, the charming historical capital of Cape Breton. We stop at Charlottetown on Prince Edward Island to admire the pretty Victorian architecture, then Les Îles-de-la-Madeleine for its rugged coastline and red sandstone cliffs. Another day at sea brings us to Gaspé - from here, it's a short journey to Bonaventure Island, home to the world's largest northern gannet colony. We continue to Sept-Îles, renowned for its pristine forests and lakes, followed by Saguenay, where whales breaching the fjord make for a thrilling sight. Our journey concludes back in Québec City.
