

CARTAGENA TO FUERTE AMADOR

Do you know your ABCs? You will after this voyage along the coast of Central and South America. Departing the beautiful colonial city of Cartagena in Colombia, we hop between Aruba, Bonaire, and Curaçao – the ABC islands. Our first encounter is with Willemstad, in Curaçao, to explore the kaleidoscopic world within its coral reef, followed by Kralendijk in Bonaire, a good spot to discover more about these islands’ Dutch colonial past, and Oranjestad in Aruba, to embrace nature in the Arikok National Park. There is more nature to enjoy at Tayrona Natural National Park at our next stop, Santa Marta on the Colombian coast. Now, we relax at sea for a day, bound for the exciting experience of cruising the Panama Canal, one of the great man-made wonders of the world. Our final destination is Fuerte Amador, gateway to Panama City.
