FORT LAUDERDALE TO SAN JUAN

After a couple of laidback days at sea, Tortola in the British Virgin Islands appears on the horizon, a place beloved by snorkelers and divers for its dazzling reef life. St John's, Antigua, is next, home to the beautifully preserved Georgian-era dockyard used by Nelson's ships. Then it's on to see and be seen in the chic boutiques and stylish restaurants of glamorous Gustavia, St Barts, before soaking up the sea views in Les Saintes, a group of unspoiled islands in Guadeloupe, which is also known for its fabulous coffee and French-Creole cuisine. Admire the Caribbean Georgian and Victorian architecture of Basseterre, the capital of St Kitts, before we arrive in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where the cobbled streets are lined with charming pastel-coloured houses and lively rum bars – a perfect setting in which to raise a glass to toast our journey's end.
