

BARCELONA TO CIVITAVECCHIA (ROME)

Sunglasses at the ready – this southern sailing calls at some of the most glamorous destinations in the Med. Leaving the art galleries and tapas bars of Barcelona behind, a day at sea lets us settle into life onboard before we arrive at Saint Tropez, a name instantly associated with French style. The chic waterfront bars and restaurants make for excellent people-watching, not to mention serving delicious food. Then it's on to even glitzier shores, with a stop in Monte Carlo – admire the superyachts in the marina and don't forget to have a flutter in the legendary casino. The birthplace of Napoleon, Ajaccio in Corsica, is next, with history galore and beautiful beaches. Then we travel to Italy, and the storied town of Portofino, whose colorful houses seem to cling to the cliffside above an impossibly blue sea. Livorno, the gateway to Tuscany, offers more of la dolce vita before we arrive in Civitavecchia, with all the splendors of Rome right on its doorstep.
