

NEW YORK CITY TO SAN JUAN

Join this nine-night cruise in New York City and begin with a relaxing day at sea as we cross to Bermuda. The Royal Naval Dockyard is our first port of call. Once a key strategic location for the British fleet, it's now the historic setting for exciting entertainment venues and great restaurants. Two more days at sea transport us to St. John's in Antigua, gateway to the beautifully preserved Nelson's Dockyard. This extraordinary complex of buildings dates from the Georgian era and is where the English admiral sheltered his fleet. Today, it's where yachties congregate as they pass through. We continue to Pointe-à-Pitre in Guadeloupe, learning about Creole life at the town's museum. Francophone St. Barts is our next stop, to see and be seen in the glamorous boutiques of Gustavia. Our final port of call is San Juan, the lively capital of Puerto Rico.
