

ROUNTRIP REYKJAVIK

On this mesmerizing 14-night voyage, the journey is as spectacular as the destinations we visit. Departing from the Icelandic capital, Reykjavik, we spend a relaxing day at sea before reaching Nanortalik in Greenland, gateway to the breathtaking Tasermiut Fjord. The dramatic scenery off Greenland’s west coast is all yours to absorb during a day at sea, before we come to picturesque Sisimiut, just above the Arctic Circle, and the capital, Nuuk, a small city of brightly colored houses, to visit the Greenland National Museum, and see humpback whales. Majestic wildlife, including white-tailed eagles, greets us at Paamiut before we sail through the long, narrow fjord system known as the Prince Christian Sound. After another day at sea, we reach Tasiilaq, to hike glaciers and explore ice caves. Now, we’ll catch our breath with a quiet sea day as we return to Iceland to visit three quaint fishing harbors, Siglufjordur, Isafjordur, and Grundarfjordur. The latter is close to Mount Kirkjufell, which you might recognise from the TV series Game of Thrones. Reykjavik marks this adventure’s end.
