

LIVERPOOL TO LISBON

Liverpool, once one of the world’s great trading ports, is our departure point for this 10-night voyage to Lisbon. A relaxing day at sea brings us to France where we call at Brest, with its rich maritime history, and Montoir-de-Bretagne, gateway to Nantes, former home of the Dukes of Brittany. Arriving in Bordeaux, we will spend three memorable days sipping world-class wines cultivated in big-name vineyards around the city, including in the charming village of Saint-Émilion. Spain comes next as we visit Bilbao, famous for its architecturally striking Guggenheim Museum. Another sea day brings us to beautiful Porto, to raise a glass to the city’s eponymous wine on an excursion along the River Douro, before we arrive in the Portuguese capital, Lisbon.
